From the Desk of the Pastor ....

The Holy Scriptures today seek to teach behaviors that manifest tenderness, concern, self-giving, sincerity, patience, forgiveness, mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, responsibility and generosity. The first two readings counsel us into cultivating good habits in order to live a virtuous life, grow incrementally holy and faithful.

However, very little is written about the family life of Jesus. Joseph speaks no words, asks no questions, and gives no sage advice. The New Testament identifies St. Joseph as a carpenter.

St. Matthew presents him as one attentive to God’s will for him. St. Luke tells us that Mary sought and followed God’s Will for her. Both of them are dependent on God’s providence and protection. The Simple house of Jesus and Mary and Joseph was certainly a household of living, and radiant faith.

Mary and Joseph live out their marriage vows in fidelity to God’s will. They travel far into Egypt at the angel’s direction; they go to the temple to present Jesus according to the custom of their ancestors in obedience to the Law of Moses. They make the long pilgrimage to Jerusalem for Passover, where they lose and then find the young Jesus discussing with the learned teachers of the law in the Temple.

A faith filled family filled with awe and wonder, ponders at the marvels God has done. The dawning of our salvation has come through Jesus, our God incarnate. This wondrous Hope of Israel’s salvation fulfilled in Jesus is entrusted to the loving and tender care of Mary and Joseph for our redemption. He is raised in the household of Joseph and Mary to learn the propensities of human nature and recognize human frailties. He would experience human vulnerabilities and temptations to disobedience and sin. However, at the same time, He would be inspired watching Mary’s and Joseph’s commitment to their vows and fidelity to God.

Ending December 30, 2018

This Parish Stewardship program “Fixing God’s House” (FGH) was born out of the year long “Quasiquincentennial Celebration” of our Parish of St. John the Evangelist. It is an enduring effort on the part of our Stewardship committee to revive, urge and encourage our Parish family and friends to carry the legacy left behind to us by those who came and went before us, to meet the challenges of the times and maintain our Parish facilities for us for years to come.

We Embrace the Past, Celebrate the present and Pledge for the future.

With great pleasure and excitement we present to you a financial report on “Fixing God’s House” as of date.
